Custom Dispensing Systems and Supplies

Gone are the days of boring dispensers.

RedDot Brands is here to challenge “business as usual” and give you a whole new experience in sanitation and hygiene. Why settle for just a handful of options? With RedDot Brands, the sky’s the limit with nearly limitless option and color combinations to leave your company’s mark.

The core of what RedDot Brands stands for is built around five universal business needs:

Image

We help your company’s image by offering high-quality products that get noticed.

Health & Hygiene

Our dispensers are designed to significantly reduce the risk of cross-contamination.

Productivity

We want to make your life easier by offering products that maximize worker productivity.

Sustainability

Our products are certified with sustainability in mind and are designed to limit waste.

Cost

We offer systems and consumables that often reduce costs by up to 30% without sacrificing performance.

Our Heritage

RedDot Brands is a part of the Hanksraft family and stems from nearly 100 years of design and manufacturing excellence. We have the knowledge and experience to provide you with quality, reliable products that will stand the test of time.
