

Press Release

For Immediate Release

October 20, 2016

---

Yusen Logistics Assists Boeing with Hurricane Matthew Relief Aid

Secaucus, NJ: Yusen Logistics (Americas) Inc. has been recognized by the Boeing Co. for its role in coordinating shipments of relief supplies from Seattle, WA to Charleston, SC, to support Boeing employees and the local community recovering from the effects of Hurricane Matthew.

Yusen Logistics provided warehouse services at its Seattle Branch, including receiving, sorting, labeling and re-packing of supplies, as well as delivery to Sea-Tac Airport. The supplies included bottled water, diapers, blankets, sanitizing wipes and other provisions.

“Yusen Logistics is proud to support Boeing, a long-time customer, as a partner in responding to Hurricane Matthew and assist with its relief efforts in Charleston, SC,” said Boris Poblete, Seattle Branch Manager, Yusen Logistics. “We hope our contribution helps Boeing employees, as well as the local community, realize a fast and safe recovery.”

About Yusen Logistics

Yusen Logistics is a global logistics and transportation provider that delivers custom supply chain solutions through one of the largest air, ocean and land transportation networks. We have over 500 offices in 42 countries and regions, with more than 20,000 employees at your service. Combining our services gives you greater control over your supply chain. For more information, visit www.yusen-logistics.com.

For further information contact:

Katherine Doherty | Marketing and Communications Analyst | (201) 553 3844