

NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
October 20, 2016

Office Contact: Dr. Catherine Hamlin • 912.748.8585
Media Contact: Amy Brock • 912.713.1548

GODLEY STATION DENTAL TO OFFER A DAY OF FREE DENTISTRY FOR CHILDREN

[POOLER, Ga] On Friday, November 4, from 1 - 4 p.m., the professional team at Godley Station Dental will provide free dental exams, teeth cleanings, and x-rays for area youth ages 12 and under to raise awareness of the importance of oral health care for children as part of their Scare Away Tooth Decay event.

According to the CDC Division of Oral Health, 'about 1 out of 5 children aged 5 to 11 years have at least one untreated decayed tooth.' Godley Station Dental owner and founder, Dr. Matthew Allen says, "Our Scare Away Tooth Decay event intends to raise awareness of the importance of children's oral health and to encourage parents to bring their children in for professional care."

The team at Godley Station Dental encourages parents to bring school oral health forms to the event for necessary authorization. Children will receive a thorough examination, cleaning, and x-rays from an expert dental team.

To participate in the Scare Away Tooth Decay event, patients must make an appointment by calling 912.748.8585. The event is open to new patients only. Godley Station Dental is located at 1000 Town Centre Blvd. #101 and is convenient to I-16/I-95 as well as Pooler Parkway.

###

About Dr. Matthew Allen and Godley Station Dental

Constantly in pursuit of excellence, Dr. Allen has trained extensively with some of the nation's finest cosmetic and reconstructive dentists including the Ross Nash Institute and the Hornbrook Group. In addition, he is an active member of the American Dental Association, the Georgia Dental Association, the Academy of General Dentistry, the American Academy of Cosmetic Dentistry, The American Academy of Dental Sleep Medicine, and The Crown Council. Dr. Allen strongly believes in continuing education and strives to stay at the forefront of the profession.

Godley Station Dental is dedicated to ensuring an atmosphere that is welcoming, relaxing and safe for all ages. With high-end amenities and distinctive services, it is the practice's goal to make sure patients are the number one priority.