DAVE WILSON, CEO

As CEO, Dave Wilson leverages a phenomenal track record of automotive success in developing effective digital marketing strategies, his experience in providing the highest level of customer service, as well as his genuine passion for the automotive industry, to ensure that iFrog Digital Marketing is the premier agency of choice for dealerships looking for a true partner that can deliver meaningful, compelling, targeted digital messages to the right customer at the right time thus increasing dealership revenue, customer retention and loyalty.

Starting his automotive career in 1976 at the age of 16 in the detail department, Dave quickly became the youngest person to become a first generation dealer at the age of 22. He has always focused on using marketing and advertising to its fullest in order to attract customers. He is the owner of the Preston Automotive Group, where he employees over 600 employees and sells close to 9,000 retail units a year.

Dave has successfully been a Top 100 Ford Dealer in the Nation and has been awarded the President's Award from Ford Motor Company multiple times as a result of his focus on providing the highest level of customer satisfaction standards. He is a current member of the Ford National Dealer Council, Chairman of Ford's Washington Dealer Advertising Fund and participates in various Digital Marketing groups for numerous OEMs.

BRENT DURHAM, CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Having grown up in the Automotive Dealership setting, Brent has touched almost every role within a dealership. Brent understands the importance of being lean and making sure that when spending money on advertising, it has to bring the highest ROI and the lowest amount of waste.

After graduating from Northwood University, with a Bachelor of Business Degree, Brent went to work for Southeastern Honda as a sales consultant. Brent then went on to work for Preston Automotive Group (PAG) as internet manager in 2009, where after a few short months, PAG was on its way to exponentially increasing their digital footprint. In mid-2010, Brent served as the finance manager/business manager of Preston Hyundai. He then returned to his passion of marketing in 2011 and continued to build Preston Automotive Group's internet presence as the group's internet director.

In 2013, Dave Wilson Sr. (CEO and owner of the Preston Automotive Group) asked Brent to work with him on building a new business model focused on Automotive Digital Marketing. Returning to the Preston Automotive Group in 2013 as internet director, Brent worked on continuing the pursuit of further expanding Preston's digital and brand presence while working towards building the new iFrog business.

In April 2014, iFrog Digital Marketing officially launched. Working as the company's COO, Brent's role has expanded from being the driving force of Preston's digital marketing strategies to now also include the digital marketing plans for the multitude of dealerships across the U.S. that iFrog now partners with.

Brent has Bachelor of Business Degree from Northwood University and holds a M.B.A. from Old Dominion University focusing on international business and global marketing

ERIC WILSON, NATIONAL VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES

Eric Wilson is a seasoned automotive sales executive, who brings nearly two decades of related experience to iFrog. As National Vice President of Sales, Wilson oversees all national sales efforts. He is responsible for managing the Company's growing team of sales professionals based throughout the U.S. as well as developing and executing a sales strategy to help manage the Company's continued growth projections for 2017 and beyond.

Eric began his automotive career at an early age when he helped his father manage the family's used car dealership in Westminster, Maryland. Eric managed all aspects of the family's business which included overseeing sales, finance, fixed operations, billing, and purchasing as well as accounts receivable and payroll. This early experience is what became the foundation and ethical standards that are instilled in Eric to this day. Wilson intends to apply his background to building a strong, productive and efficient direct sales team across the U.S.

Most recently Eric serviced as the National Sales Director for 3 Birds Marketing, where he lead, developed, and motivated the national sales team while establishing and maintaining relationships with industry influencers and key strategic partners. From 2010 to 2012, Eric was the New Car Sales Manager at Mile One where he was responsible for managing all aspects of the high volume automobile dealership including sales operations, training, appraising/wholesaling, and DX management for the dealership.
