Celebrate the Season at Dutch Winter Wonderland

Be Mesmerized by Thousands of Twinkling Lights within a Winter Wonderland!

Nov. 17, 2016 (Lancaster, PA) – Dutch Winter Wonderland returns this season for joyous holiday fun. This winter-themed event features twinkling lights, holiday shopping and over 20 rides & attractions at Dutch Wonderland.

The Royal Light Show is a family favorite featuring thousands of dazzling lights synchronized to holiday tunes at the Celebration Theater. The pathways of Exploration Island will include over 20 lifelike dinosaurs dressed in seasonal garb. Guests are invited help Mrs. Claus and her Christmas elves plan this year's Christmas Party. Be prepared to sing and dance with these friends who will turn this festive season upside down. Princess Brooke will deck the halls by sharing some of her favorite stories at Storytime Corner. Dutch Winter Wonderland also features meet & greets with Santa and holiday treats, such as hot chocolate and s'mores.

On the grand opening of this holiday event, Dutch Wonderland and the Toys for Tots Foundation will be co-hosting the annual toy drive to benefit children in the Lancaster County area. Children ages 12 and under who bring a new, unwrapped toy donation between 3:00 pm and 9:00 pm on November 19 will receive one complimentary admission to Dutch Winter Wonderland.

Dutch Winter Wonderland is open select weekends and weekdays November 19 through December 30. Admission is $13.99 per person ages three and up (subject to amusement tax).
