

MSI wins EMMA for “Relocation Management Company of the Year”

November 14th 2016 – HAMPTON, N.H. — MSI Global Talent Solutions has won the Forum for Expatriate Management’s (FEM) EMMA Award for “Relocation Management Company of the Year” at the 2016 European EMMA awards.

Following MSI’s win in this years Re:locate Awards as Best Relocation Management Company and top 3 position in the HRO Magazine’s Baker’s Dozen Award, MSI is delighted to be recognized and validated by the judges as leading the industry in thought leadership, direction service and service offerings.

The EMMA Awards independent panel of judges added: “The GEO services team that offers clients the option to move employees to countries where they have no legal presence is a good addition to the range of services that MSI offer. Love the web portal!”

“Every day we strive to exceed the expectations of our clients and their relocating employees and this EMMA award demonstrates the continued recognition of MSI as a top-rated global talent solutions company,” said Timm Runnion, MSI’s CEO. “Once again, I would also like to pay particular appreciation to our family of dedicated employees around the globe. Their teamwork and commitment to continuously expanding our value to our corporate clients, makes this award possible.” Runnion continued.

“Global talent solutions comprised of talent consulting, global talent mobility and global expansion services are important components of our global business portfolio,” added Eric Egnert, MSI COO & CIO. “Through this portfolio of capabilities, MSI helps organizations align their global growth objectives and strategies to ensure that their overarching corporate mission is achieved and that the company experiences continued success.”
