Gym Source Announces New Store in Miami!

Company brings fitness shopping experience to new market; confident equipment experts can find right solutions for fitness fans.

New York, NY — January 16, 2017 - Gym Source, America's leading retailer of premium residential and commercial fitness equipment, announces the grand opening of a new showroom at South Dixie Hwy in Miami, FL.

"We are elated to be opening this new showroom," explains Tom Richard, Chief Marketing Officer at Gym Source. "The new innovative in-store concept is designed to give clients a seamless and motivating shopping experience."

Every fitness journey is unique, and the Gym Source's specialty fitness shopping experience supports individual health goals. Customers can test drive a large selection of industry leading brands in the store, eliminating doubt about which products best meet their fitness needs.

"Our equipment experts share the same passion as our clients, and we are committed to finding the products that support our customers' fitness goals." said Richard Miller, Gym Source's founder and CEO. "The newest store location in Miami, FL creates the opportunity for Gym Source to present even more fitness fans with top fitness equipment and accessories."

The South Miami store will be located at 9410 South Dixie Highway Miami, FL 33156. Grand openings deserve great deals, and Gym Source is celebrating with discounts of up to 20% off through January 31st.
