

Dan Towle New CICA President

Dan Towle has served as the Director of Financial Services for the State of Vermont and as the chief marketing and business development professional for the State of Vermont's captive insurance industry for over 17 years. He has led the strategy, marketing and development efforts to maintain Vermont's leadership as a premier captive insurance domicile.

He is a frequent presenter at national conferences and events throughout the country and is often visible in national media as an authority on captive insurance. He has published numerous articles in industry trade press. Dan has also been recognized for his contributions to the captive insurance industry by being voted #17 in the 2016 Captive Review "Power 50" which recognizes the most influential individuals in the global captive insurance industry.

Prior to his current position, Towle was a business development officer at Vermont National Bank overseeing the promotion of all non-loan commercial products. During his 10-year tenure with the bank, he worked in various capacities including branch banking and corporate banking services. He also served for a year on the bank's prestigious corporate re-engineering team recommending efficiencies to the organization.

Towle is a graduate of the University of Vermont, has two teenage children, two teenage step-children and is married to Anne Marie Towle, of JLT Insurance Management.
