PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Advance your career in the hospitality management industry by completing your bachelor's degree in Hospitality Management from Marylhurst University. This in-depth program combines key career skills in restaurant management, hotel management, membership clubs and resorts and destination travel leading to careers in managerial roles.

By completing this program, you will earn a Bachelor of Science in Hospitality Management. If you hold an Associate's of Applied Science (AAS) or other technical degree, you have the option of completing a Bachelor of Applied Science in Hospitality Management to leverage the technical skills you learned in community college.

INDUSTRY LEADERSHIP

In order to continuously deliver cutting-edge industry knowledge, the university has affiliated itself with internationally recognized hospitality management experts from across Oregon and the nation. This direct industry influence keeps the program apprised of the latest developments and enhancements to hospitality instruction. For you, this means a direct connection to the industry offering opportunities for internships, networking and employment. Here's just a sample of the organizations and businesses that make up the Hospitality Management Advisory Council:

- Oregon Restaurant and Lodging Association
- Travel Portland
- Bon Appetit Management Company
- Travel Oregon
- Oregon Convention Center
- Provenance Hotel Management

HOSPITALITY CAREER PATHS

Hospitality management careers span a wide range of focus areas and industries such as hotels and resorts, clubs and memberships and meetings and events. Highly skilled managers with a bachelor's degree in Hospitality Management continue to be in high demand across the hospitality industry. In addition, Oregon — and particularly Portland, Oregon — is a strong growth and career advancement region for those wanting hospitality management careers.

Hospitality management jobs are expected to grow between 5% and 10% nationally in the next decade and even higher in Oregon.
