Capital Market Consultants, Inc. Adds New Chart Book to Its A La Carte Research Offering

Milwaukee (PRWEB) April 17, 2017 — Capital Market Consultants, Inc. announced today the addition of a new and improved chart book for wealth managers adding to their suite of a la carte research reports and analyses as well as client communications for advisers. The new product is updated monthly and covers a broad range of data on the global economy and markets presented in a colorful and compelling way.

"We are really excited about this new version of our chart book. We have found ourselves needing many of these charts and tables for our own client presentations and white papers over the years and now advisers can have access to those very same images and more. The range of topics and data points presented is very broad and will satisfy the needs of most wealth managers in their communication and client education needs. The images can be incorporated into client reviews, seminars, presentations, etc. It is really quite versatile."
