Capital Market Consultants, Inc. set to Expand Model Portfolio Program with Launch of Income Generator Models

Milwaukee (PRWEB) May 19, 2017 — Capital Market Consultants, Inc. announced the launch of their Income Generator Investment Strategies for registered investment advisers. These three (3) new globally diversified model portfolios each have a primary objective of significantly greater than market current income with total return as a secondary investment objective.

These additions add to the existing suite of six total return strategies CMC currently has available on virtually all turnkey asset management platforms (TAMPs) and that are available directly to advisory businesses from CMC that wealth managers can trade themselves on their preferred custodial platforms.

"We have been incubating these portfolios for over two years and had one advisory adopt them some time ago. Now that we have built an attractive track record we are launching these strategies in the marketplace. In a low rate environment, these models should be a good fit for investors who need monthly income", said Barry Mendelson, CIMA CEO of CMC.
