Empower Your Team

Flip on over to that brochure, case study, or price sheet card—and send your customer a link while you’re still with them. Whether you are a rep, part of a small sales team, or belong to a corporate salesforce, Flipdeck can help you organize and share links to key information in seconds. No more waiting until you’re back at the office to send the info your customer needs. A familiar cards and decks visual approach makes it easy to find the info you need to share.

Today’s customers expect a quick response. A Flipdeck for Teams Account helps sales teams share key information in a timely manner and promotes consistency of your message. With Flipdeck for Teams, the most effective information is in the hands of your sales people and ready to share with customers.

Keep your message consistent

No matter the size of your team, everyone is on the same page with one central location for content distribution.

Share the right content in seconds

Give your team the most up-to-date content, so they can share the right information with prospects at any time.

Keep track of your team activities

Gain insights with analytic tools. See what information your team shared the most, who the top users are, and more.

Highlights

The right content

Create cards with important information — just once — and organize them into themed decks.

Mobile delivery

Automatically push cards to each subscriber and help ensure that everyone's info is consistent.

Edit subscriptions

Deliver appropriate information via centrally set subscriptions. Set start and end dates, choose applicable decks, and view status.

Manage users

Organize subscribers into teams to help ensure that users only get the info that applies to their sales focus.

Send messages

Send messages like announcements or promos to team members in your account. Choose to send messages immediately or select a future date and time for delivery.

Analytics & insights

Gain “at a glance” insight into card usage, active and expired subscriptions, top users, and more.
