Square Feathers, an Award-Winning Pillow, Furniture and Home Accessories Company Announces New Hamptons Collection *Family Owned Austin Company on National Market Tour

June 27, 2017 – Austin, Texas – Square Feathers, a family owned and operated pillow, furniture, and home accessories Company based in Austin, Texas, is pleased to announce it has officially launched its Hamptons collection.

The Company was founded in 2008 by Ron and Rebecca McIntyre, launched by first selling pillows door to door out of their car. The pillows were crafted and sewn in the garage of their residence in Austin, Texas. Since its humble beginnings, the Company has exploded into an award-winning national Company featuring a robust product line made to outfit entire rooms, homes, and venues. Product specialties include pillows, furniture, art, and home accessories. All pieces are the original work of Mr. McIntyre including materials personally sourced through his global travel, and many incorporate his own photography.

“The inspiration for the Hamptons collection originates from the lifestyles of the elite. It breathes impeccable style and flawless taste. Like the culture in East Hampton, the collection is classic and modern plus perfect for relaxing by the Atlantic,” stated Ron McIntyre, Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Square Feathers.

The Hamptons collection is being featured at all CODARUS showrooms nationwide. Square Feathers is a product partner brand for CODARUS; the nation’s leading source for manufacturers, retailers, and designers to find the latest products from premier lifestyle brands.

“With faux dark grey ostrich covered tables incorporating lucite in unexpected ways, this collection exudes an understated sophistication,” added Mr. McIntyre. The Hamptons collection can be shopped here: <https://www.squarefeathers.com/hamptons-collection/>.

Mr. McIntyre and Square Feathers are showing now at the CODARUS Dallas Market Center event. For more information about the event or to register, visit: <http://dallasmarketcenter.com>.

The next stop on the Square Feathers summer tour is the CODARUS AmericasMart Atlanta, Georgia from July 12 – 19, 2017; the nation’s number one marketplace. AmericasMart Atlanta features top gift, home, rug, and apparel brands from around the world. In addition to Mr. McIntyre, the event will also feature fellow industry designers Nate Berkus, Sarah Jessica Parker, and others. For more information about the event or to register, visit: <https://www.americasmart.com>.

Square Feathers products can be found at countless retail Companies, including Neiman Marcus, Houzz, Wayfair, and more; as well as sought after by leading interior designers. Continuing to operate as family owned Company has allowed Square Feathers to deliver custom and personal service for ten years while experiencing remarkable growth and success.

About Square Feathers:

Square Feathers is an Austin, Texas based national company that crafts decorative pillows, furniture, art and home accessories, all designed and made in the USA. Its signature creations contrast cultural ethnicities with modernism that only its avid world traveler founder and designer, Ron McIntyre, can fashion. Founded in 2008 out of his garage by selling door to door, Mr. McIntyre prides himself in the ability to ship same day, and customize to size and fabric needs. Square Feathers has been coined the industry’s “can do Company” for its ability to provide custom and sophisticated design solutions for any project. Award-winning Square Feathers has been featured in countless home design and décor publications for its fresh innovation and design expertise.
