

PRC Clinical Partners With SDC to Expand ClinPulse Event Series to the Boston Biotech Hub

PRC Clinical, the Expert Clinical Trial Management CRO, is Partnering With Statistics & Data Corporation (SDC), a Specialized Data Services CRO, to Expand the ClinPulse Event Series to the Boston Biotech Hub.

Cambridge, MA. September 13th 2017. PRC Clinical and SDC are organizing a ClinPulse panel and networking event on Thursday, September 21st from 6 to 8:30pm EDT at Catalyst in Cambridge, MA.

Clinical operations experts will discuss the topic of “Proactive Patient Enrollment Strategies for Clinical Operations Professionals.” From tracking enrollment progress to communicating with underperforming sites to engaging with patient advocacy networks, expert panelists will share best practices and insights on proactive patient enrollment strategies.

The ClinPulse Boston panel will be comprised of:

- Melissa Price, Vice President, Clinical Development, TARIS Biomedical
- Roger D. Nolan, Ph.D., Co-Founder, President and COO, Biokier
- Carole Ann McEvoy, Clinical Study Manager, PRC Clinical
- Faith Kolb, Vice President, Biometric Operations, SDC
- Bryce Warren, Ph.D., Executive Consultant in Clinical Operations

“We are thrilled to have such a wonderful lineup of speakers for our first ClinPulse event in Boston” said Tony Taricco, President & COO of PRC Clinical. “Our panelists come from diverse backgrounds within Clinical Operations and Clinical Trial Management. Their unique perspectives will make for an engaging and educational discussion.”

Registration is open at prclinical.com/boston. Local Clinical Operations professionals are invited to join this free event to learn how to better approach:

- Drift & Wobble – Tracking enrollment progress and hitting goals
- The Zen of Enrollment – Training tips and mantras for sustained focus
- Phone Fatigue – Communicating with sites and sharing key performance data
- Are we a Match? – Selecting the right CROs to help you reach your goals
- Safety Net(works) – Leveraging patient networks and advocacy groups

The Boston region hosts a large biotech community with over 50,000 employees in bioscience-related jobs. The expansion of the ClinPulse event series gives PRC Clinical the ability to leverage its repeated presence at local conferences and better serve pharmaceutical, biotech and regenerative medicine developers in the Boston area.

About ClinPulse

The ClinPulse Expert Event Series focuses on the drivers of change in clinical trials. PRC Clinical and its partners have organized four sessions in the San Francisco Bay Area and one session in San Diego, CA. They aim at gathering subject matter experts to discuss long-term trends and look at ways people are exploring and acting on these themes. Previous events included speakers from the FDA, Genentech, Celgene, Nektar, the California Institute for Regenerative Medicine (CIRM), and BioMarin Pharmaceuticals.
