

Breazy.com Disrupts $5 Billion E-Cig Market With 100,000 Order Milestone
E-commerce marketplace startup grows rapidly in developing vape industry

Brooklyn, NY, September 27, 2017 - Breazy, Inc., one of the fastest growing e-commerce companies focused on nicotine vaping products, today announced it has passed a significant milestone, shipping its 100,000th retail order. □

Founded in 2014, Breazy.com has expanded to include over 700 brands of vapor products including e-liquid, hardware & accessories. The company's e-commerce marketplace operates a warehouse in New Jersey, and also allows third-party suppliers to drop ship directly to customers. Breazy's goal is to have the widest selection of vaping products available online.

Having achieved record growth through the third quarter of 2017, Breazy is excited to provide its customers exceptional service through the holiday season.

"Breazy.com prides itself on delivering best in class customer service and offering the largest selection of vape products at the lowest possible prices on the web," according to Andy Aranda, the company's CEO.

In addition to being the leading online provider of vapor products, Breazy.com focuses on fostering a community for vapers through its vape education section & Breazy Magazine. Additionally, Breazy Local connects vapers to 10,000 brick-and-mortar vape shops across the U.S. through an extensive online directory.

To learn more about Breazy.com and its expansion plans or to book an interview, please contact Sofia at sofia@breazy.com.