Corporate Ladders Wins Gold Award for Best
Lawyer/Law Firm Business Development Coaching &
Training Firm in New Jersey

Bergen County, NJ – For the second year in a row, Corporate Ladders, an acclaimed business development coaching, consulting and training firm, has snagged New Jersey Law Journal’s prestigious Gold Award, for “Best Lawyer/Law Firm Business Development Training and Coaching” in New Jersey.

The Allendale-based company, which uses a proprietary business development approach to spark significant revenue growth for attorneys, was chosen out of field of over 20 business-coaching resources throughout the US.

CEO Bill Taylor is proud of Corporate Ladders’ latest recognition. “We’ve been in business for over 23 years, and have been focused on professional services markets since 2007. In ten years our firm has trained and coached hundreds of attorneys, and moved from being a newcomer to the top business development coaching & training firm for lawyers in NJ.”

According to Taylor, Corporate Ladders’ approach involves three key ingredients:

- Creating truly customized solutions for every client
- Using the right blend of new concepts to complement tried and true methodologies
- Being laser focused on the end game – helping clients achieve significant results

“Every client has untapped potential. We combine a workshop along with one-to-one coaching sessions to help uncover the best path for each client to leverage their particular strengths.”

Taylor and his team have proved their mettle – their detail-oriented, practical program has consistently helped numerous attorneys and firms of all sizes build bigger books of business. By working with Corporate Ladders training and coaching, one attorney increased their book of business from $700k to over $1.2 million in just under a year.
