

About Johnson's Real Ice Cream

The doors of Johnson's Real Ice Cream of Bexley, Ohio were first opened by Robert N. Johnson and his son-in-law James Wilcoxon, Sr. on September 1, 1950. Together they developed the ice cream and built the building for the business that has become the oldest and most complete ice cream shop in Columbus.

For the past 45 years, Jim Wilcoxon, Jr. has actively run the company as the 3rd generation and today, Matt Wilcoxon operates the family business as the 4th generation.

Johnson's Original Shop is located at 2728 East Main Street, Bexley, Ohio 43209. In 2017, Johnson's opened a location at 55 West Bridge Street in Dublin. A third location is scheduled to open in the Spring of 2018 at 160 West Main Street in New Albany.
