

New native BACnet KMC building automation controllers installed throughout building

VFD's installed in computer room units as well as hot water pumps and chilled water pumps

