Honolulu Festival Dances Through The Weekend With Free Cultural Performances, Parade And Fireworks Show, March 9-11

HONOLULU – The Honolulu Festival is set to showcase its 24th annual weekend-long display of Asia-Pacific culture from March 9-11. The celebration will feature a variety of performances and activities, including music, dance, arts, crafts, exhibits, special presentations, a parade and fireworks show.

The free event is open to everyone and will take place at three locations around Honolulu on Saturday, March 10 and Sunday, March 11 – Hawaii Convention Center, Waikiki Beach Walk and Ala Moana Center.

Presented by the Honolulu Festival Foundation under the banner of “Pacific Harmony,” the Festival’s goal is to help perpetuate the strong cultural and ethnic ties between the people of Asia Pacific and Hawaii, a commitment conveyed in this year’s theme: “Harmony over the Ocean, Journey to Peace.”

“Hawaii is such a diverse place with much cultural influence from the Pacific Rim. We are excited to bring a taste of that culture to the Island for locals and visitors of Hawaii to experience,” said Tsukasa Harufuku, president of the Honolulu Festival Foundation. “We encourage all of you to come down and bring your family for a weekend of free entertainment and events around Honolulu.”

Since 1995, the Honolulu Festival has been a major contributor to Hawaii’s tourism economy during a traditionally off-peak travel period. The Festival has brought tens of thousands of visitors to Hawaii from Asia Pacific. This year, an estimated 5,000 people will participate in the festival, comprising more than 150 groups from the Pacific Rim and Hawaii.

The festivities will conclude on Sunday evening in Waikiki with two highly-anticipated events. First, a colorful Grand Parade through Kalakaua Avenue will commence at 4:00 p.m., with performers, floats, and groups from Asia Pacific and Hawaii. Following the parade, Honolulu’s sister city, Nagaoka, will light up the sky with a spectacular Nagaoka Fireworks Show over Waikiki Beach beginning at 8:30 p.m.

HONOLULU FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

Cultural Performances and Exhibits

Saturday, March 10, 10:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.

Sunday, March 11, 10:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Cultural music and dance performances will be held at three locations: Hawaii Convention Center, Waikiki Beach Walk and Ala Moana Center. In addition, the Hawaii Convention Center will feature a wide array of cultural activities, arts, crafts, exhibits, and foods appealing to all ages, including:

- Ennichi Corner: Designed specifically for children, the Ennichi Corner will offer fun, hands-on activities inspired by the traditional Japanese Saint’s Day festival. Children will be introduced to customary Japanese games, crafts, and traditions.
- Craft Fair and Exhibitions: Crafters will display a wonderful variety of cultural art and exhibits.

Documentary and Movie Presentations

Movie enthusiasts will enjoy a diverse collection of documentaries and movies from around Asia Pacific. The selection showcases a variety of Pacific Rim cultures, histories that provide snapshots to help viewers. Admission is free.

The Untold: Story Internment of Japanese Americans in Hawaii depicts the life of Hawaii's local Japanese after the events of Pearl Harbor during World War II. This first full-length documentary on the mass internment of Japanese Americans in Hawaii chronicles their untold stories through oral histories, documents, interviews and reenactments.

Voices Behind Barbed Wire: Stories of Oahu documents the mass incarceration of Japanese-Americans during World War II in Hawaii sharing the personal stories of those on the island of Oahu from their initial detention to their transfer and interrogation at the U.S. Immigration Station and their incarceration at Sand Island.

Grand Parade

Sunday, March 11, Start – 4:00 p.m.

Following Sunday's cultural performances, Kalakaua Avenue will take center stage for the Grand Parade. Festival groups and performers from Asia Pacific and Hawaii will dance, sing and stage cultural demonstrations for the delight of residents and visitors. The highly entertaining parade will also feature marching bands and floats, highlighted by the fire-breathing dragon Daijayama.

The Grand Parade is recognized by the City of Honolulu and presented with a Legacy Award for its achievements and continued service as a mediator between the City of Honolulu and its sister-city, Nagaoka City (Japan).

Nagaoka Fireworks Show

Sunday, March 11, Start – 8:30 p.m.

The Honolulu Festival will conclude with the spectacular Nagaoka Fireworks Show over Waikiki Beach. The fireworks will be shot from barges positioned off the midpoint of Waikiki Beach.
