Adessa Group Appoints Olivier Poot as Chief Operations Officer and Board Member

Longtime HCM industry leader to assume responsibility for operations, client management and service delivery

BRUSSELS (6 March, 2018) – Adessa Group (www.Adessa-Group.com) announced today that Olivier Poot has joined the company as Chief Operations Officer, investor and active member of the company's board. In this role, Olivier Poot will report to Adessa Group Founder and CEO Gaëtan Masson and will be responsible for Adessa's operational activities, its HCM service offerings, and service delivery.

Adessa is an SAP HCM & SuccessFactors partner and provider of services and solutions for HRIS, Payroll, Time Management, Benefits and Workforce Administration. Founded in 2005, Adessa is dedicated to HR transformation and committed to helping its customers reach their business objectives while ensuring their HR foundation (core HRIS, Payroll, Time, Benefits) are prepared for an eventual move to the cloud.

Olivier Poot joins Adessa Group from iXerv Global where he was co-founder and Chief Operations Officer for the past two years. In addition to his recent role at iXerv, Olivier also brings nearly 20 years of progressive leadership experience from global HCM software and solutions providers like OpenHR and NorthGateArinso.

“It is a real pleasure for me to join Adessa as a Board member, investor and in the role of Chief Operations Officer,” Olivier Poot said. “This is an exciting new venture for me, in line with my values, my passion for building strong teams and helping companies in their digital HR transformation journey. It's also a proof that good friendships stay strong, in personal and work life.”

“At Adessa, we believe the digital HR journey is not ‘one size fits all’. It needs a case-by-case approach that can only be achieved by managing all elements of the delivery,” said Gaëtan Masson. “Olivier Poot has a very strong background in operational excellence and service delivery in HCM projects across the globe. His deep experience and delivery expertise will not only benefit our customers but will also be a key driver of Adessa's continued growth as a company.”

About Adessa Group

The Adessa Group was founded in 2005 as a specialized and pan-European Human Resources service provider. The company was founded with the vision of supplying sustainable computer solutions through the development of an international network of subsidiaries, close to their customers and with the aim of growing organically. This vision was translated through the values that shaped Adessa's corporate culture.

Today, Adessa has an international presence with offices in Belgium, Switzerland, France and Spain and works closely with clients all over Europe. The company's success is evident through the long-term relationships we have built with our clients and through the established corporate culture. It is exactly these values that have enabled us to grow organically. At Adessa, every employee brings his own unique flavor to the team, resulting in great diversity but also stimulating our culture of collaboration and team spirit.
