Atlantis, FL - December 10, 2018 - Cantor's Driving School announces that it now offers driving lessons in 6 counties along the southeastern coast of Florida. Already well-established as a leading driving school in Broward County and Palm Beach County, Cantor's Driving School is now in Miami-Dade County to the south, along with Martin County, St Lucie County, and Indian River County to the north. The service area map on the new website (<https://www.cantorsdrivingschoolfl.com/cantors-service-area/>) shows the expansion clearly.

This latest expansion continues the swift growth of Cantor's Driving School in Florida. Started in 1976 in Pennsylvania, Cantor's Driving School commenced operations in Florida in 2011. Also operating in Arizona and Nevada now, Cantor's Driving School is the largest family-owned, non-franchise driving school in the United States. Also, Cantor's Driving School is authorized as a third party tester by the Florida Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles (DHSMV) to administer the road test at their main office location in Atlantis, FL, another move that has enabled the driving school to grow.

Cantor's Driving School owner Frank Cantor comments: "Cantor's Driving School continues its growth in Florida because we offer a better driving school experience, while keeping our strong values as a family owned and operated business."

All driving instructors at Cantor's Driving School are off-duty or former police officers, another strong attraction for student drivers seeking the best instruction. Lessons are competitively priced and students can save money by purchasing a package of driving lessons that includes the driver's road test.
