Tompkins International Announces Additions To Executive Team

Tompkins International names Chief Commercial Officer, Chief Strategy Officer, and Chief Technology Officer.

Raleigh, NC - Tompkins International is proud to announce additions to its executive leadership team. These additions are a direct result of the company's growth.

Jim Herman has been named Chief Commercial Officer. With more than 30 years of experience, Herman is recognized as a highly impactful and transformational sales and marketing executive within the retail, distribution, manufacturing, and supply chain industries. He has worked strategically in partnership with brands and retailers of all sizes to achieve accelerated growth and supply chain optimization. Herman will lead all business development initiatives for Tompkins International.

Gene Tyndall has been named Chief Strategy Officer. Tyndall is a highly respected supply chain consultant, industry veteran, and thought leader. He has more than 30 years of experience with more than a hundred multinational corporations and domestic companies in strategy development, new process design, technology, and leading practices. Many of the best practices in place today across all industries are due to his leadership. Tyndall will lead the strategic development of the Tompkins International business and marketing initiatives and strategic planning processes.

Jeffrey Godwin has been named Chief Technology Officer. Godwin has more than 20 years of supply chain management, distribution, and transportation experience. He will oversee the development, procurement, integration, implementation, enhancement, and maintenance of a suite of integrated, best-of-breed applications designed to deliver rapid value and competitive advantage to all of Tompkins International's clients.

"I am thrilled about all three of these gentlemen's new roles, together they will help continue to grow the Tompkins International ecosystem, providing even greater solutions for our clients," stated Jim Tompkins, CEO, Tompkins International.
