Experienced Chicago-based Senior Project Manager joins ACCEND

CHICAGO – 100% employee owned general contractor ACCEND Construction is pleased to announce that Wes Klockowski is joining the firm as Senior Project Manager. A Chicago area veteran with over a decade in the industry, Klockowski will advocate for ACCEND’s clients and ensure best in class project execution.

“I am excited to welcome Wes to our team,” said ACCEND Construction President Andy MacGregor. “Wes brings experience in multiple geographic regions and product types, but I am most excited by his thoroughness, his relationship based approach and his unwillingness to settle for anything less than the best.”

Over the past decade, Klockowski has completed a wide variety of commercial interior projects in Pittsburgh and Chicago for notable clients such as Mayer Brown, Goldman Sachs, United Airlines, and Mars Wrigley. He possesses a wide range of expertise, but truly excels and specializes in fast paced, phased and occupied construction projects.

“I’m honored to join the ACCEND team,” said Klockowski. “I look forward to growing ACCEND’s business while creating a positive and fun construction experience for all of our clients and business partners.”
