

Mr. Bates is released from jail after serving six months for child molestation. What lies ahead for his son and family after both the church and his peers find out Alan's secret?

Cuban refugee Alejandro Hernandez's son, Alfredo, has been molested by a bishop in the Catholic Church. Can his family survive their journey and reclaim their faith?

American-born Jesus Ramirez applies for a position at Shelton's. He is embarrassed when the manager implies that he is an illegal immigrant in front of listening customers. Will Jesus walk out of the interview or prove he is qualified for the job?

Glen is out of the "slow" class, but the abandonment by his father is still painful. Glen reaches out to his father with a birthday card. Will Glen's father finally have room for him in his heart?

Claudette Milner is a former educator and CRA officer. Unheard Voices is the second book of a three-part series. Ms. Milner was born in Louisville, Kentucky, and currently resides in Charlotte, North Carolina.

www.PUBLISHAMERICA.COM

5.50 x 8.50

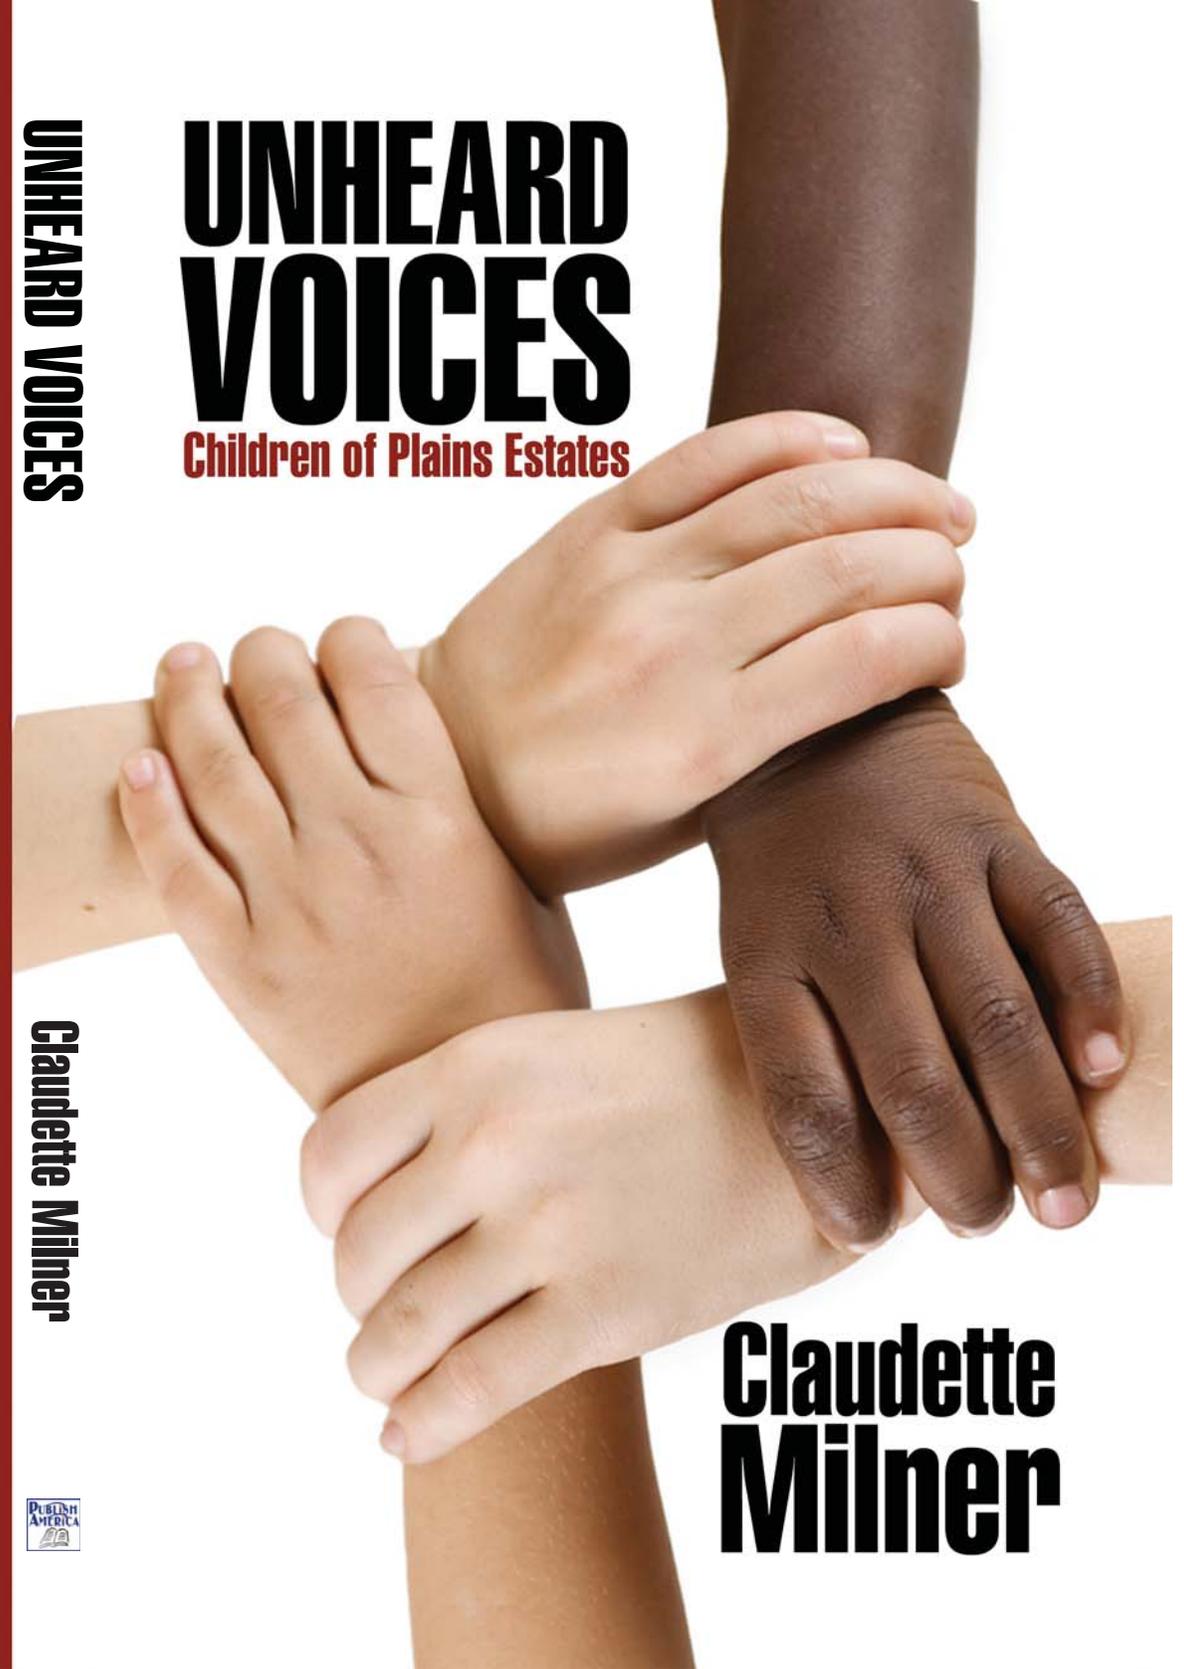

UNHEARD VOICES

UNHEARD VOICES
Children of Plains Estates

Claudette Milner

.441

Claudette Milner

5.50 x 8.50

9 781604 411454