

EXECUTIVE PROFILE

MONTY VENKERSAMMY

VICE-PRESIDENT OF GLOBAL SALES, BOXSENTRY PTE.LTD.

Mr. Venkersammy currently serves as the Vice-President of Global Sales at BoxSentry Pte. Ltd. In his role, he is responsible for driving business opportunities for BoxSentry in key regions and vertical industries.

Mr. Venkersammy has over twenty years of technical sales, business development and management experience in the selling to large Enterprise and Internet organizations. He has a strong track record developing strategic business relationships and highly effective sales teams.

Most recently, he was Vice President of Sales and Business Development which was acquired by Trendmicro(NASDAQ:TMIC) in 2005. He was instrumental in making the acquisition a success. Mail-Abuse Prevention System (MAPS)/Kelkea was the first RBL(Realtime Blackhole List). Monty was instrumental in launching Kelkea as the first "Reputation Company" in 2004. His customers included Yahoo, AOL, Comcast, Time Warner Cable, Roadrunner, Bell Canada, SBC and many large enterprise including EDS, HP and Microsoft. At Trendmicro, he trained the sales organization worldwide in selling Reputation System "In the cloud" service. He oversaw the Asia Pacific region, where he worked with the largest ISPs and Enterprise customers, including NAB Bank, Australia, Telstra, VSLN, China Netcom, PCCW, Hong Kong Broadband and various country Managers in China, India, Hong Kong, Australia, Japan and Indonesia.

Mr. Venkersammy was the CEO and co-founder of Webvision, Inc, which raise $75 Million dollars in 1996. He also founded Above Commerce (formerly FrontierStore), two highly successful e-commerce start-ups in 1999. Mr. Venkersammy also helped launch Indiaplaza.com, one of the first Indian portal sites, which was later acquired by Satyam Infoway (NASDAQ:Sify).

During his 20-year career, Mr. Venkersammy started his career with IBM and Merrill Lynch in New York City. He has held positions of responsibility and consulted for companies such as Infosys, IBM, Synoptics, BBN Planet and Proteon. Mr. Venkersammy studied Electrical Engineering and Computer Science at the Polytechnic Institute of New York and Pace University.

Mr. Venkersammy was on the United States Cricket team to the ICC World Cup in Kenya 1992.