

MSAR^{18th Edition}

Mineral Sands Annual Review 2010

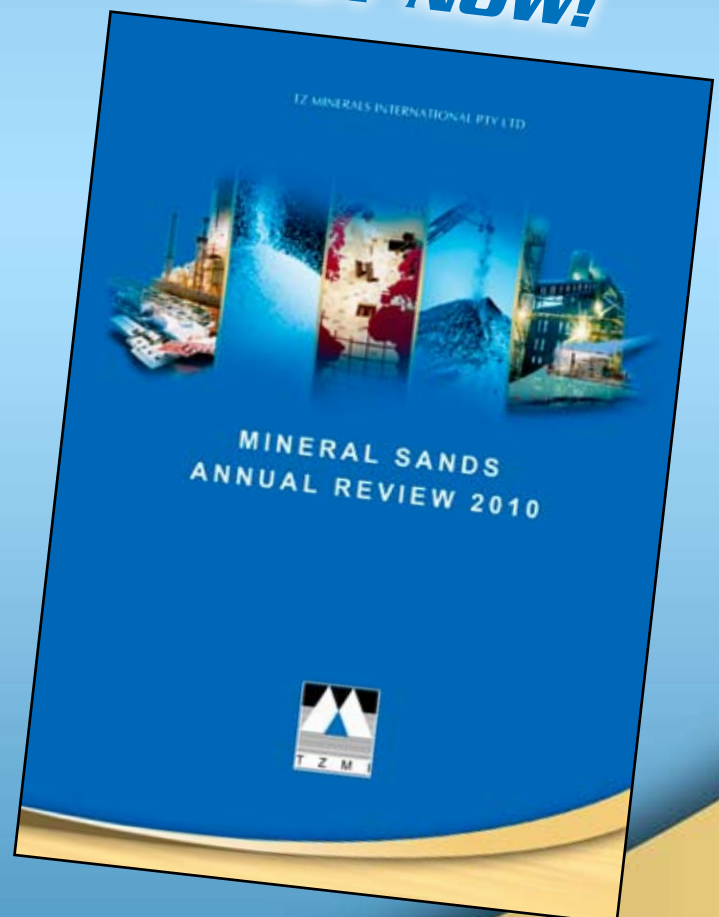

Navigating the global economic storm

The definitive reference for the titanium minerals, zircon and TiO₂ pigment industries.

- Analysis of trade, consumption, production and pricing for the titanium feedstock, zircon and TiO₂ pigment industries covering:
 - Overall Perspective from 2005 - 2009
 - Forecasts to 2012
- Company profiles for:
 - Feedstock producers
 - Pigment producers
 - Sponge producers
 - Zircon millers

Mineral Sands Annual Review 2010

Mineral Sands Annual Review 2010 – The definitive reference

MSAR is an essential resource for mineral sands, zircon, and TiO₂ pigment information and data. Containing more than 300 pages, the 2010 edition helps identify key trends and developments in the market by providing authoritative, independent, accurate data and research.

About the publisher

The TZMI Group is an independent consulting and publishing company, established in 1994, with offices in Australia, the USA, Europe, South Africa and China. The Group is comprised of four operating divisions and subsidiaries, providing specialist services to the following industries:

- Mineral sands and zircon, through TZ Minerals International (TZMI);
- Titanium dioxide pigment, through TZ Pigments International (TZPI);
- Iron ore and ferrous alloys through TZ Ferrous Commodities (TZFC);
- Specialty chemicals for the global paints and coatings industry, through TZ Chemicals International (TZCI).

Two associated companies, in which TZMI has a shareholding, provide ancillary services to these industries and augment the offerings of the Group's other divisions, these are:

- Allied Mineral Laboratories (AML), providing testwork, product assessment and flowsheet development for mineral sands, iron ore and other heavy mineral deposits;
- Ferrum Consultants, market consultants in ferrous metallics.

Our team have decades of cumulative production and consulting experience across the commodities value chain, from resource estimation to divestment, and the depth of our skills enables us to provide advice ranging from high-level strategic M&A decision support to operationally-focused plant optimisation.

These varied consulting assignments enable us to maintain an active dialogue with existing and potential participants in the industry and to keep fully aware of new developments. To ensure we can provide accurate and up to date advice, our research analysts maintain the most comprehensive and current databases of industry production, market information and best practices in the world, including supply/demand models, technical data and operating cost data for all major producers.

TZMI Group's Publications and Data Services support its consulting activities, maintaining our consultants' awareness of the industries in which we operate and providing clients with a range of authoritative data and informed commentary on all aspects of these.

From a free weekly news service to sector-specific periodicals and data matrices, multi-client studies and annual industry reviews, the TZMI Group offers a comprehensive suite of products and subscription options suitable for all industry participants. For more information, visit www.tzmigroup.com

Executive Summary

- 1.0 Introduction
 - 1.1 The titanium and zircon industries
 - 1.2 Industry structure and ownership
 - 1.3 Major industry developments
 - 1.4 Report structure
- 2.0 The state of the industry post the Global Financial Crisis
 - 2.1 Introduction
 - 2.2 Economic considerations and market indicators
 - 2.3 Global trade volumes
 - 2.4 Investment climate
 - 2.5 Summary
- 3.0 TiO₂ pigment
 - 3.1 Introduction
 - 3.2 TiO₂ pigment demand in 2009
 - 3.3 TiO₂ supply in 2009
 - 3.4 Major industry events
 - 3.5 TiO₂ pricing and trade
 - 3.6 TiO₂ pigment supply/demand analysis
 - 3.7 Industry financial situation
 - 3.8 Perspective
- 4.0 Titanium feedstocks
 - 4.1 Feedstock supply in 2009
 - 4.2 Feedstock consumption in 2009
 - 4.3 Supply/demand analysis
 - 4.4 Feedstock pricing in 2009
 - 4.5 International trade in titanium feedstocks
 - 4.6 Outlook to 2012
- 5.0 Titanium sponge and other markets
 - 5.1 Titanium sponge and metal industries
 - 5.2 Other titanium feedstock markets

- 6.0 Zircon markets
 - 6.1 The end-uses for zircon
 - 6.2 Regional markets for zircon
 - 6.3 Ceramics
 - 6.4 Refractories and foundries
 - 6.5 TV Glass
 - 6.6 Specialty chemicals and materials
 - 6.7 Outlook for demand to 2012
- 7.0 Zircon supply/demand and pricing
 - 7.1 The production of zircon
 - 7.2 Global production of zircon in 2009
 - 7.3 Corporate structure on the zircon supply side
 - 7.4 Production outlook to 2012
 - 7.5 Supply/demand balances and pricing
- 8.0 Co-product pig iron
 - 8.1 Introduction
 - 8.2 The global steel industry
 - 8.3 Pig iron production
 - 8.4 HPPI production
 - 8.5 Global MPI trade
 - 8.6 The foundry industry – ductile iron castings
 - 8.7 MPI price development
- 9.0 New projects
 - 9.1 Projects recently commissioned
 - 9.2 Projects with formal approval to proceed but not yet commissioned
 - 9.3 Projects with completed technical feasibility studies
 - 9.4 Projects under active investigation
