The Saga continues...

Immediate releases follow up to successful trailer music album, Trailerhead, with an album of equally epic cinematic music, Trailerhead: Saga, released on July 20, 2010.

Trailerhead: Saga follows one of 2008's best-known trailer music releases, Trailerhead, which contains some of the most rousing, powerful and talked about music heard in movie theatres around the world. The album features 14 tracks of high impact, high emotion and high production value music that have been featured in worldwide trailers for Pirates of the Caribbean 3, X-Men 3, Night at the Museum, Monsters vs. Aliens and many more.

Immediate is widely acknowledged as Hollywood's preeminent producer of original music for major motion picture trailers, and pioneered the broad distribution of trailer music with the release of Trailerhead.

From their first trailer score for Carlito's Way to recent high profile campaigns for films such as Avatar, Alice & Wonderland and THE LAST AIRBENDER, Immediate is passionate about creating the very highest quality modern epic music. Their music has been licensed worldwide and featured in hundreds of trailers, commercials and television programs. Some of their most prestigious clients include every major motion picture studio including Paramount Pictures, Sony Pictures, Walt Disney Pictures, 20th Century Fox, DreamWorks, Universal and many TV networks, including CBS, NBC, ABC, FOX and HBO.

Immediate is composers/producers Yoav Goren and Jeffrey Fayman

Imperativa Records, led by Emmy Award-winning composer and producer Yoav Goren, specializes in the production and release of original CD and online music, covering a broad spectrum of genres including soundtrack, rock, and contemporary classical. Over the last fifteen years, Goren and his Immediate Music co-founder Jeffrey Fayman, have composed and produced over 1,500 tracks of original music heard in more than 5,000 major movie studio and network television projects. Imperativa sync licenses the label's masters into films, television shows, movie trailers and TV commercials. The label offers music which blends a massive orchestral and choral sound with contemporary styles, accessible to today's wide ranging, music-loving audiences, and which is also highly sought after for product branding.
