ezW2 2010 Makes Filing Forms W-2 and 1099
Easy, Fast & Risk free

ezW2 2010, W2 1099 software, is affordable but fully functional software designed for the non-accounting small business and accountants who needs to file and print Form W-2 and Form 1099. The software is available for free download.

For users, who plan to file the forms W-2/w-3 or 1099/1096 for this tax season, can take benefits from the features of ezW2 2010, the 1099 W2 printing software.

Thousands of users love this 1099 W2 preparing, importing and printing software because it is simple, reliable and affordable. ezW2 application is designed for use by non-accountants with minimal computer skills. However, even accountants like it because it is so flexible and supports unlimited accounts with one flat rate.

"Small business owners shouldn't be spending hour after hour setting up and learning to use payroll tax software," said Halfpricesoft.com founder Dr. Ge. "We designed ezW2 to be powerful, yet simple, so anyone can use it, and ezW2 2010 is the most easy-to-use version to date."

The latest edition can print 2 sets of W2 or 1099 data on one red form sheet - the top half of the sheet for one employee and the bottom for another employee. This feature can cut the employer's cost for red form sheets in half. And ezW2 2010 even eliminates need for red forms of W2 Copy A and W3 by laser printing Social Security Administration-approved substitutes on plain white paper.

Of course ezW2 2010 version also includes the latest versions of Form W2, W3, 1099 and 1096 for compliance with the Internal Revenue Service and Social Security Administration.

ezW2 1099 W2 software was specifically engineered with non-accountant business owners in mind. Its intuitive interfaces allow the user to get started on filing and printing Forms W2, W3, 1099 and 1096 without the long learning curve typically associated with financial software.

Best of all, anyone looking for an easier way to print and file W2's, W3's, 1099's and 1096's, can try ezW2 2010 without cost or obligation. The software is available for free download at http://www.halfpricesoft.com/w2-software-free-download.asp. This is not a demo or trial version. All features are available and there are no time limitations. It is the complete software. However, documents will print with a "DEMO" or "SAMPLE" watermark across each page until a license key is purchased. The license key is just $39.

The download package includes a sample database, which makes sampling ezW2 2010 even easier. Users don't have to waste time entering data just to try the software; all they have to do is upload the sample database and start trying the features. This saves customers time and money and ensures that ezW2 2010 is right for them before they buy.

ezW2 2010 supports fast data importing and an unlimited number of businesses, making it ideal for accountants who need a simple solution to filing W2's, 1099's, W3's and 1096's for their clients. This feature also makes the software ideal for entrepreneurs with multiple businesses.
