International Symposium on Malignant Mesothelioma

June 23-25, 2011

Connect with patients, family members, scientists, advocates, and others committed to curing mesothelioma, and explore your own mind-body connection through expertly-led healing art sessions.

Discover in-depth mesothelioma science — learn from world-renown experts about treatments such as intracavitary chemotherapy for pleural and peritoneal mesothelioma, gene therapy and immunotherapy.

Empower yourself with knowledge and a network of peers and experts!

Full list of topics and registration available after March 15 at curemeso.org/symposium. For more information contact the Meso Foundation at (877) 363-6376.
