Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 25, 2011 ... Deerfield Beach, FL

Used Cosmetic Laser Industry Experiences Substantial Growth, The Laser Warehouse Expands Business in 2011

The Laser Warehouse, the leading reseller of used cosmetic lasers, used aesthetic lasers and other aesthetic equipment has expanded its inventory and secured new warehousing and showroom space to accommodate the recent growth in aftermarket aesthetic equipment sales. In April 2010, Medical Insight, Inc., the aesthetic industry's leader in sector and custom market research, released the Global Aesthetic Market VIII research report. The report indicated that aesthetic product sales were beginning to rebound as physicians reacted to increased consumer and business spending over the previous year. The report forecasts aesthetic product sales will reach $6.8 billion a year by 2014, with sales in skin tightening and body shaping equipment to account for more than 17% of the market.

Demand for used cosmetic lasers and used aesthetic lasers during 2010 increased significantly as medical practitioners, med spas and laser centers sought more cost effective means of bringing additional treatments to their patients while expanding the quality and diversity of services they can provide. Moving to a new warehouse has allowed The Laser Warehouse to increase their inventory of used cosmetic lasers and used cosmetic laser hand pieces by more than 60%. The Laser Warehouse's used aesthetic laser inventory consists of a wide variety of cosmetic laser types such as IPL, Fractional 1540, Diode lasers, Ebrium, ND: Yag and many more. As demand for used cosmetic lasers continues to grow, The Laser Warehouse is adding more inventory of the industry's most popular brands and models. Brands include Palomar, Cynosure, Candela, Lumenis, Hoya ConBio and others. The Laser Warehouse is also increasing used aesthetic laser inventory for equipment utilized in skin tightening and body shaping applications.

The Laser Warehouse is actively increasing used cosmetic laser equipment levels and expects that it will double last year's inventory levels by the middle of 2011. By working closely with sellers and buyers, The Laser Warehouse has been able to increase its availability of the most
