

OTIS AT A GLANCE

Established in 1918 by the Los Angeles Times founder, Harrison Gray Otis. L.A.'s first independent professional school of art

Otis prepares diverse students of art and design to enrich our world through their creativity, their skill, and their vision. Entering students spend their first year in Foundation, where they study art and design basics such as life drawing, color, composition, and form and space.

Otis is among the most culturally diverse colleges of art and design in the U.S.

of students from outside California

students come from 28 countries & 40 states

15%

International Students

1,200

Degree Students

2,700

Continuing Education Students

Undergraduate Majors (BFA)

Students select a major in the sophomore year.

Advertising Design • Architecture/Landscape/Interiors
Digital Media • Fashion Design
Graphic Design • Illustration
Product Design • Painting
Photography • Sculpture/
New Genres • Toy Design

Coursework

Graduate Majors (MFA)

Fine Arts • Graphic Design
Public Practice • and Writing

All 420 faculty members are practicing professionals in their fields.

7:1

Student :
Faculty
Ratio

Financial Aid
86% of degree students receive scholarships and financial aid.

Internships and Careers

Students intern at art galleries and museums such as the Museum of Contemporary Art; and the Getty Museum, and intern at creative companies such as LEGO; Deutsch Advertising; Fox Searchlight Pictures; Gap, Inc; Nike; Univision; Warnaco; and WB Television Network.

Alumni are employed by major companies such as Abercrombie & Fitch; Digital Domain; Hasbro; Hurley; Lucasfilm; Mattel; Nike; Sony; and Target. Their work is exhibited and collected by museums such as the Chicago Art Institute; LACMA; Museum of Modern Art; National Gallery of Art, Pompidou Center; Studio Museum; Harlem; and Walker Art Institute. More than 1,500 employers post jobs annually at the Online Career Center. otis.edu/career.