Rapidly Growing 7Summits Expands into Chicago, Increases Milwaukee Presence

Firm Seeks Java Developers, Project Managers and Account Services Positions

CHICAGO (July 2, 2012) – Social business agency, 7Summits, announced its expansion into the Chicago market with the addition of a new office in Schaumburg. With revenues that have tripled in the past two years and clients ranking among the world's most recognizable brands, the new office provides a significant extension to 7Summits' presence and enables the firm to meet the rapidly rising demand for its solutions.

"We have a growing client base in Chicago and are excited to add a physical presence here as well," said Paul Stillmank, CEO of 7Summits. "7Summits continues to attract the best minds in social business and we look forward to expanding the team in Chicago as we continue to deliver collaboration and community experiences that truly transform our clients' businesses. We are adding several new positions in the areas of Account Management Services, Project Management and Technology. The greater Chicago market also positions us to take advantage of a strong number of Sr. Java Developers and Software Engineers that have extensive experience with the Struts, Hibernate and Spring frameworks."

Along with the new Chicago office, 7Summits has expanded its Milwaukee headquarters to over 10,000 square feet and is also establishing a presence in Denver.

"Walking into any 7Summits office is an exhilarating experience," said Stillmank. "Our teams are excited about the success with our business and the impactful work that they are doing for our clients."

With over 14 new hires so far in 2012, 7Summits continues to add premiere talent from across the country to its award-winning team. 7Summits was recently recognized by the International Academy of the Visual Arts with 2012 Communicator Awards for excellence in web marketing and communication. With strong revenue and profitability, 7Summits was also named to the 2012 Future 50 list presented by the Metropolitan Milwaukee Association of Commerce (MMAC).

"2012 has been our biggest expedition so far here at 7Summits," said Stillmank who organized the company's quarterly milestones around a trek to the South Pole. "We'll be finishing even stronger in the second half of the year as we continue to add marquee clients and the right Sherpas to deliver results for them."
