

Litigation Support Consulting

Partnering in your success since 2001!

Our name is defined by quality and integrity but our team's experience and knowledge are what separates Elite Document Technology from our competition. Our aspiration is to become your partner for all of your cases so that we can help you establish a standard for how you handle all of your document review's, production's and the everyday data management that hinders your ability to focus on your client's needs.

GIVE US AN OPPORTUNITY TO LEAD YOU DOWN THE RIGHT PATH!

Our suite of services is all-encompassing. We can deliver results in a fast and accurate manner and will become a reliable resource for you and your colleagues. We are available 24/7 for support in all phases of the litigation life cycle.

Contact us today to schedule an opportunity for us to consult with you on how we can implement the services below to improve your current process.
