

ROCKLER'S NEWLY REDESIGNED ROUTER TABLES EXHIBIT VERSATILE FEATURES AND PACKAGE DEAL OFFERINGS

MEDINA, MN (November 8, 2012) - Rockler Woodworking and Hardware has introduced a redesigned line of Router Tables. The new designs feature a bright white table color, added accessory tracks, dust port and translucent bit guard to deliver maximum precision, ease of use, and safety for all router table operations. The High Pressure Laminate (HPL), Pro Phenolic, and Cast Iron Router Tables are each available in package deals to fit the needs of any woodworker. Package deals include the table top, router table fence, and router plate.

"These Router Table Packages are the finest we've ever offered," said Steve Krohmer, Rockler's Vice President of Product Development. "We have done our best to deliver new features such as the new color, added accessory tracks, and dust port for the best value so that every woodworker who uses these table packages can more easily see their work, shape their project pieces, and achieve the best final results they've ever had."

The HPL and Pro Phenolic tables feature a new bright white surface designed to reflect more light and maximize visibility during routing operations. Built-in dual T-track/miter tracks expand the possibilities for a variety of setups involving additional jigs or a standard miter bar. All tables come with adjustable fence faces, a CNC-machined aluminum plate that is pre-drilled or can be drilled to fit any router and rests on a 10-point leveling/locking system for precise flatness, 2¹/₂" dust port to easily connect to a dust collection system, and a translucent bit guard for added safety and visibility.

The High Pressure Laminate Package retails for $249.99, the Pro Phenolic Package retails for $399.99 and the Cast Iron Package retails for $599.99. Each package includes the table top, fence, and plate. All of the packages can be purchased at Rockler Woodworking and Hardware stores nationwide, Rockler independent resellers, Rockler.com, or from the Rockler catalog.
