

Center for Institutional Investor Education

NEW YORK, NY, Nov. 16, 2012 - Adam Raleigh, CEO of Latin Markets, is pleased to announce the launch of US Markets.

US Markets is a boutique provider of allocator focused national investment forums, regional summits, and market intelligence. After four years and over 100 successful events focused on Latin American investments, Adam and his dedicated team of professionals will bring their expertise to the United States with the launch of US Markets. Leading the US Markets team is Spencer Craig, with over 20 years of experience in finance and event management.

“I’m thrilled to be part of a team that will bring new and useful approaches to executing the highest level financial events in the US,” said Mr. Craig. “Much of our first year will focus on the public pension plans. This is an area where real changes are already underway in almost every state across the country, and we look forward to being part of the community that helps foster financial security for those who have earned it.”

Mr. Craig is joined by Kim Griffiths, Head of Business Development and Industry Relations. Ms. Griffiths has nearly a decade of experience managing financial events around the globe, and has held institutional sales roles at JP Morgan and Bear Stearns. In addition, Albert Neubert, one of the world’s foremost experts on index development, will serve as Chief Advisor to the US Markets team.

The content platform provides a world-class and unmatched perspective into the financial landscape of the United States, developed through daily and close collaboration with investors, academics, fiduciary experts and leading investment managers around the world.

US Markets maintains and develops local investor networks throughout the US, while building local communities with more than 5,000 institutional investors, fund managers, advisors, and industry thought leaders. Investors include pension funds, foundations, endowments, sovereign wealth funds, and family offices, all of whom join US Markets annually for discussions and events related to asset allocation, regulatory changes and investment strategies.

US Markets and its affiliated companies are comprised of a highly experienced team of 40+ individuals with true passion and expertise in events, finance, investment, media, and education.

To kick off 2013, US Markets will host the Mountain States Institutional Investor Forum in Denver, on March 7. Large and small institutional investors will gather to discuss issues ranging from asset allocation to economically targeted investing.

The US Markets team invites you to visit its website at www.usmarkets.org.

US MARKETS, Center For Institutional Investor Education.

New York, NY 10018

Telephone: +1 646 202-1686, info@usmarkets.org.

www.usmarkets.org