New Breakfast Deal Feeds Excitement at Downtown Fort Worth Hotel

The Worthington Renaissance Fort Worth Hotel offers complimentary meal for two adults, 24-hour use of Health Club as part of package

Fort Worth, TX – Whether rounding up steer, leading a high-powered meeting or simply lounging around on vacation, all guests of The Worthington Renaissance Fort Worth Hotel need one thing: breakfast.

The downtown Fort Worth hotel celebrates the most important meal of the day with a fresh new deal that will whet the appetites of even the most cost-conscious consumers. The Bed and Breakfast Package offers deluxe accommodations on a Friday or Saturday from $169 to $219 per night along with breakfast for two adults and up to two children 12 and under at the hotel's popular Vidalias restaurant. The deal also includes complimentary use of the hotel's expansive Health Club and indoor pool.

Guests of the Stockyards hotel will find pure luxury when they step foot into one of 474 rooms designed in a tasteful Western style. Each boasts spectacular views of downtown Fort Worth along with one king or two double pillow-top mattresses with custom duvets, cotton-rich sheets, down comforters and plenty of fluffy pillows. High-speed Internet, large desks with ergonomic chairs, in-room coffeemakers and safes, Marriott's Plug-in technology, irons and ironing boards, oversized chairs with ottomans, 32-inch LCD TVs and iPod docks are other high-end amenities guests of the Renaissance have come to expect.

After awaking from a sound night's slumber, visitors of the Fort Worth hotel can indulge in Vidalias' Southern comfort meals featuring the freshest and finest home-grown ingredients. The official Go Texan restaurant's early morning menu is simple yet healthful, with such starters – aka called "eye openers" – as yogurt and granola parfaits, local homestead Gristmill Organic oats, seasonal sliced fruits and ruby red grapefruits. Entrees include classic and southern eggs benedicts, pecan and mesquite pancakes, fried egg sandwiches, egg white and farmers omelets, Belgian waffles and French toast. Whole grain toast, Odom's Tennessee Pride country sausage and bacon also are available.

Guests needing to work off the extra calories can do so in the spacious state-of-the-art fitness center with treadmills donning personal TVs, elliptical machines and stationary bikes along with tons of free weights. The 24-hour facility also has an indoor swimming pool and whirlpool. Massage services are available by appointment for an additional cost.

Travelers hungry for a good deal can take advantage of the Bed and Breakfast Package, one of the freshest Fort Worth hotel deals available. Book for Friday or Saturday night stays by using promotional code S4B online at www.marriott.com/DFWDT or by calling 1-800-228-9290 from now through Oct. 17.
