

Stealth Attraction: Review Of Richard La Ruina's Attraction Training Course Released By PUABooks.net

Summary: PUABooks.net releases a review of Richard La Ruina's "Stealth Attraction" home training program which intends to help men quickly and naturally attract women without fear of rejection.

"Stealth Attraction is one of the most popular training programs available for men looking to quickly improve their success with women," reports PUABooks.net's Clint Johnson. "Wild reports have been popping up from guys who have been using the system successfully, so we wanted to review the program for our website visitors and give them the honest truth about the Stealth Attraction system"

The Stealth Attraction program was created by Richard La Ruina, a world famous pick up artist and mentor to thousands of men looking to improve their attraction, dating and seduction skills. La Ruina has stated that he was quite shy and awkward around women in his younger years before embarking on a journey to master the art of attracting women. La Ruina spent years mastering his craft and learning from other thought leaders in the pick up field before forming Europe's largest pick up training company PUA Training and creating his immensely popular Stealth Attraction system. La Ruina has been featured by many major media outlets such as The Times, the Independent, Cosmopolitan, FHM, and has appeared on several television networks including the BBC, VPRO, and Canal+.

Johnson explains Stealth Attraction's widespread popularity:

"When men realize that there actually are steps they can take to improve their dating lives they usually get pretty excited," says Johnson. "However, that excitement can often lead to confusion and disillusionment due to the fact that there is just so much conflicting information out there on this subject of how to attract women. Stealth Attraction, differs from mainstream dating and pick up advice on many counts. La Ruina devised his system to allow users to 'fly under a woman's radar' so that they can work their charm without setting off alarm bells."

While some critics have asserted that using tactics based on an advanced understanding of female psychology and arousal is underhanded and sneaky, Johnson asserts that such knowledge merely evens the playing field.

"Most guys have trouble attracting women because they don't understand what women want, or what they respond to," says Johnson. "The Stealth Attraction program gives guys the tools that they need to approach women without the fear that they are going to be rejected. It gives guys a massive confidence boost, because they know exactly what to do and say to spark attraction and move things forward quickly, and smoothly."

The Stealth Attraction program is available online allowing customers instant access to the video training. For access to this limited offer, including access 4 additional trainings, click here.
