‘Earl the Dead Cat’ Plush Toy is Back From the Grave – and Available for Purchase!

The funny, popular plush toy is back as “The Last Cat You’ll Ever Need,” available now – just in time as the world’s most perfect offbeat Christmas gift for those who do (and don’t) love cats worldwide!

NEW CANAAN, CT. He’s baaaack! Say goodbye to messy litter boxes, smelly cat food, and being woken up at 2:00 a.m., just because "someone" mistook your nose for a catnip mouse. And don’t worry about clawed Christmas trees (or chewed candy canes) either! Why? Because ‘Earl the Dead Cat®’ – the “purrfect” maintenance-free pet – is back, and available for sale now for just $24.99 at www.EarltheDeadCat.com!

A flat, understuffed, yet weirdly cuddly plush cat (dead or not, Earl loves to hug), ‘Earl the Dead Cat’ is a great gift for those who love (or don’t love) cats, and is also the perfect comic present for those who just want a fun and offbeat conversation piece.

After being out of production for years as a popular retro gift item a few decades back, Earl can now be yours once again! Made of dark gray acrylic plush and other quality materials, Earl is a funny, cutely sad specimen resigned to his fate, with X’s for eyes, a black nose, red tongue, and a crooked tail. He’s been built to last for years to come, and measures 27 inches from head to tail, and 7 inches across. Earl even comes with an attached humorous “Death Certificate” listing just a few of the “101 Reasons He’s Better Than a Live Cat.”
