

The Center For Family Success

A program of
Pathfinders of Oregon

The Center for Family Success

Prioritizing, Parenting and Protecting Our Children

The Center for Family Success works with families to improve outcomes for children of criminal justice involved parents. The Center supports stable, healthy families through evidence-based programs that meet client needs and produce reliable, repeatable results; through parenting education, client advocacy and home visiting; with family engagement activities; and by creating partnerships that enhance collaboration. The Center has been serving clients in the Rockwood neighborhood since 2007.

Pathfinders of Oregon has been working with criminal justice involved clients for twenty years to break the cycle of criminality. Pathfinders has provided programs and services in Oregon's prisons and in the community to more than 35,000 Oregonians impacted by criminal justice involvement.

Programs & Services

Center services include:

- Parenting Inside Out classes in English and Spanish
- Healthy Relationships: Successful Families classes in English and Spanish
- Family reunification and advocacy assistance
- Anger management classes
- Employment services
- Caregivers Support Group
- Fatherhood Support Group
- Parent Leadership Team
- Family engagement activities

Parenting Inside Out (PIO)

Parenting Inside Out is an evidence based parenting skills program developed for systems involved families. PIO is based on Parent Management Training, a proven program that appears on multiple national best practices lists.

PIO is a 48-hour, 12-week program that covers topics including communication skills, problem solving skills, ages and stages of child development, non-violent discipline and setting boundaries, positive encouragement and supervision and monitoring.

Healthy Relationships: Successful Families (HRSF)

Healthy Relationships: Successful Families is a family violence prevention program based on new research that emphasizes the importance of the dynamic between members of a couple. HRSF helps parents to understand the impact of family violence on their children, and to develop positive relationship skills and behaviors. HRSF is a 24-hour, 12-week class with an optional parent support group.

For more information on referring clients contact:

The Center for Family Success
503-286-0600
info@pathfindersoforegon.org

