

‘ Fantastic New website for leading Vacation rental site ‘Travel Tuscany’

‘Travel Tuscany’ is part of Connexions Group Inc, an American company which , since 2002 has focused on cultural tourism and Tuscany villa rentals. The company has just announced the release of its newly designed and improved website, fully optimized for the most popular social networks.

Boasting a modern new look and many improved search and browsing capabilities the site allows you to easily navigate through its vast array of beautiful and personally selected accommodations ranging from historical castles, luxury tuscan villas and mansions, characteristic farmhouses and city centre apartments all over the glorious Tuscan region. Visitors to the site are able to search by date, desired price and the size of the group. Particular requests can be easily accommodated by using specific shortcuts to save you time. Whether it be a ‘Wedding Villa’ or a ‘Villa with a Tennis Court’, ‘Villa with a Heated Pool’, ‘Villas with AC’ or a ‘Long Term rental’, by simply clicking on the appropriate link you will be taken to a selection of properties that fit your criteria.

A downloadable ‘Tuscany Travel Guide’ will aid visitors to Tuscany and will enhance their experience allowing them to carry either a printable version or electronically on a mobile device and will include all of the most important highlights - great wine tours, details on cooking classes and other culinary delights of the region, the ‘Top 20’ restaurants in each area, wines that are a ‘must try’, great shopping and of course all of the important information as to getting around, transport , emergency numbers and also a quick translation guide to assist you when out and about and dealing with the locals.

The dreamlike and eternally romantic Amalfi Coast will be highlighted for the 2013 summer season with a lovely selection of affordable apartments and luxurious villas for those that wish to explore towns like Sorrento and Positano.
