Parkmerced San Francisco To Host Children's Easter Egg Hunt
At Juan Bautista Circle

Staff from the San Francisco apartments will hide 10,000 eggs

San Francisco, CA – Area children will have a golden opportunity to celebrate the start of spring at one of the largest free Easter egg hunts in the area. The event will be held at Parkmerced Apartments at Juan Bautista Circle on Saturday, March 30, 2013 at 12:00 pm Parkmerced Apartments in San Francisco is expected to host more than 500 children at its third annual event featuring 10,000 colorful eggs. Children will be divided into groups so they can seek out a limited number of golden eggs that contain a ticket redeemable for an Easter basket worth more than $100. All other eggs are filled with candy and prizes to please everyone with a sweet tooth.

The Easter bunny will make a special appearance and be available for pictures and to spread holiday cheer.

"We are excited to host our third annual Children's Easter Egg Hunt", said Didi L. MacDonald, general manager of the second-largest apartment neighborhood west of the Mississippi River. "It's a great opportunity for area residents to get together and celebrate the start of spring."

Parkmerced has ordered 10,000 pre-stuffed eggs that are made of 100-percent recyclable material. Participants are encouraged to enjoy the candy and prizes inside the eggs and then recycle the plastic containers so they can be donated to local schools

Although reservations are not necessary, Parkmerced encourages those interested in attending the event to RSVP to Bryce Boddie by calling 1-415-405-4626 or emailing BBoddie@greystar.com.

Parkmerced is a master-planned San Francisco apartment community comprised of high-rise flats and garden-style town homes on more than 152 acres. The community boasts nearly 8,000 residents and hosts monthly events that are open to the public. Among scheduled happenings for this year are a bingo extravaganza in May, Independence Day festival in July, community garage sale in August, movie in the park in September, harvest festival and pumpkin patch in October and Santa's workshop in December.

About Parkmerced

Parkmerced is the second-largest apartment neighborhood west of the Mississippi River in the United States. The community, managed by Greystar, is home to nearly 8,000 residents in a combination of 3,221 high-rise flats and garden-style town homes.
