

Sports Physical Therapy Residency

Why EIM?

In short, relationships, faculty, and location.

- EIM Residents are exposed to a vast community of evidence-based practitioners, high quality employers and prospective employees.
- EIM is closely associated with many of the best academic programs and other key stakeholder groups in the physical therapy profession.
- EIM is privileged to be associated with world class faculty from a variety of the best academic programs and clinical practices in the country. These faculty are internationally recognized for their contributions to education, research and clinical practice.
- The extensive community that has formed around EIM provides a best practice environment for prospective residents and fellows to receive the highest caliber of training and to become distinguished leaders in evidence-based orthopaedic and manual physical therapy practice.
- Many of our graduates will become leaders in clinical education within their practice, affiliate with high quality academic programs and assume leadership positions within APTA, APTA State Chapter organizations, the American Academy of Orthopaedic and Manual Physical Therapists (AAOMPT), the Sports Physical Therapy Section of APTA and the American College of Sports Medicine.
- The majority of the residency happens wherever you happen to be. The five weekend intensive on-site courses occur at EIM Network Partners and academic centers located in key geographic areas around the country, providing easy access via automobile and air travel with suitable hotel accommodations in the immediate vicinity.

The Objective: An 18-month program of post-professional clinical and didactic education for physical therapists designed to advance the physical therapist resident's preparation as a provider of patient care services in sports physical therapy.

The Experience: An intensive combination of didactic, collaborative and clinical education experiences using a combination of distance learning, on-line courses, weekend intensive hands-on courses and clinical practice hours (including athletic venue hours).

The Opportunity: Ongoing clinical supervision and mentoring, with a theoretical basis for advanced practice and scientific inquiry.

The Outcome: EIM's Sports Residency Program is designed so that graduates will:

- Grow as practitioners skilled in sports physical therapy.
- Become highly skilled, autonomous practitioners who have substantially increased their ability to provide care to a full spectrum of patients with athletic injuries.
- Gain a strong base of knowledge of evidence-based practice and preventative and rehabilitative sports therapy techniques.
- Be positioned to both achieve the Sports Certified Specialist (SCS) certification from the ABPTS and to be leaders in the sports physical therapy field.
