

Project Management Training

Identify the right course for you

Change Using Project Environments

"Insanity is doing the same thing over and over again and expecting different results." (Albert Einstein)

PRINCE2 ®

Who does it suit?

Team Managers, Project Managers, Board Members, Assurance

PRINCE2 is the de-facto international project management method. It will provide you with a process-based approach for project management, an easily tailored and scalable method for all types of projects. Project leaders benefit from PRINCE2 training enabling optimal investments in skills, resources and technology to deliver business benefits.

PRINCE2 ® Professional

Who does it suit?

Experienced Project Managers

The PRINCE2 Professional Assessment Centre tests your ability to run projects for real rather than just in theory: by working with others, deliver to tight deadlines, produce products, justify your views, persuade others and identify good solutions with plans to support them. This Assessment Centre is not a course. No training is provided. However, the assessment process relies heavily on all candidates having a good level of knowledge of structured project management.

MSP ®

Who does it suit?

Project Board Members, Programme Managers

MSP training enables the delivery and maintenance of a strategic view over a set of projects. It identifies how to align and coordinate them within a programme of business change in support of specific business strategies and provides the framework for applying business strategies and initiatives, where there is a "vision" of the programme's outcomes.

P3O ®

Who does it suit?

Project Managers, PMO Team Members

Portfolio, Programme and Project Offices - P3O training provides universally applicable guidance that will enable you and your organisation to successfully establish, develop and maintain appropriate Portfolio, Programme and Project (PPM) support structures. This will allow informed senior management PPM decision making on strategic alignment, prioritisation, risk management, optimisation of resource etc. to successfully deliver their business objectives, using projects, programmes and portfolios.

EVM

Who does it suit?

Project Managers, Assurance, Programme Managers

Earned Value Management Training will help you to measure project performance. It is used for cost and schedule control and can be a useful tool combined with your experience for project forecasting. EVM Training provides you with quantitative data for project decision making.

MoV ®

Who does it suit?

Project Managers, Experienced Project Managers, Project Board Members, Assurance

The MoV guide aligns Value Management thinking with other best practice guidance from The Cabinet Office, in particular Programme and Project Management. The major benefits of MoV training includes meeting escalating demands of stakeholders, whilst still providing quality outputs; stimulating innovation to improve product or service performance, whilst decreasing costs and increasing returns on investment.

Supporting Skills

Who does it suit?

Anyone involved in PPM

We offer a wide range of courses including a variety of subjects, such as Advanced Customer Care, Negotiation Skills, Presentation Skills, Influencing Skills, Facilitation Skills.

MoP ®

Who does it suit?

Project Board Members

Management of Portfolio training will help you and your organisation make decisions about implementing the right changes to business as usual. MoP provides a 'bird's eye view' of all change activities. This includes a clear line of sight about what is in the portfolio, what it is costing, what risks are faced, what progress is being made and the impact on your organisation's business.

Agile

Who does it suit?

Team Managers, Project Managers, Board Members, Assurance

This certification provides the ability to deliver Agile Projects in organisations requiring standards, consistency and visibility around Project Management. Agile enables fast pace, change and empowerment. Agile Training will teach you how to lay the foundations to manage your successful projects.

APM

Who does it suit?

Team Managers, Project Managers, Assurance

APM incorporates a mix of tools, techniques, skills and processes into a body of knowledge. APM offers a progressive structure that demonstrates your Project Management achievements. An APM qualification demonstrates to your employer, clients and suppliers that you are a committed project professional.

M_o_R ®

Who does it suit?

Programme Managers, Project Managers, Project Board Members, Assurance

M_o_R training provides a generic framework for the management of risk across all parts of a company; whether it is strategic, programme, project or operational level. It provides a route map for risk management, bringing together recommended approaches, checklists and pointers to more detailed sources of advice on tools and techniques.

ITIL ®

Who does it suit?

IT Service Desk (any level)

ITIL Training covers the only consistent and comprehensive documentation of best practice for IT Service Management. Its philosophy has developed around the guidance contained within the ITIL books and the supporting ITIL Training and professional qualification scheme. You can choose from a range of Service Manager qualifications depending on your role.

PMI

Who does it suit?

Project Managers, Project Board Members, Assurance

PMI's Project Management Professional (PMP)® credential is the most important industry-recognized certification for project managers. Globally recognized and demanded, the PMP® demonstrates that you have the experience, education and competency to lead and direct projects.

Change Management

Who does it suit?

Experienced Project Managers, Portfolio Managers, Programme Managers

Change Management Training is a comprehensive set of models, tools and techniques that will allow you to come to terms with Change Management. You will already be familiar with some of the metaphors on offer. But others will challenge your thinking about yourself, your organisation and how change happens.
