

OVERVIEW

Operator Assisted Conferencing

Professional, high-touch audio conferencing

ConferenceSuite's operator assisted conferencing service is the number one professional conference call service for quarterly financial calls, specialty education audio conferences that offer CEUs, board meetings, and other high-profile calls. No matter the size, ConferenceSuite's professional team of operators will help you plan, manage, and execute conference call detail.

Professional Meeting Every Time

Operator assisted conferencing by ConferenceSuite is the perfect conferencing solution for large scale investor relations conference calls, international business forums, financial and healthcare conferences, and board meetings. ConferenceSuite's professional team of operators assist in greeting participants, recording and launching the call with a customized script, managing questions, and delivering detailed reports of who joined the your conference call. Choose ConferenceSuites' operator assisted conferencing service to deliver your message professionally and personally.

It's Your Call!

- Each participant is greeted by a live audio conference specialist and placed into the call.
- Every participant with a question is queued and questions can be asked and answered privately by one of your speakers or publicly for other callers to hear.
- Conference call deliverables (i.e. recordings, participant lists, audio conference call transcription) are always delivered in a timely matter
- Reliability and quality are guaranteed or your money back

Customize Your Call

- Reserve your call in advance
- conferencing with up to 3,500 participants
- Manage call attendance with a pre-approved list of participants
- Toll Free and International conference call dial access
- Individual participant greeting & data collection
- Operator manages participant questions and answers
- Operator will initiate the audio conference recording
- Operator will transcribe your audio conference call recording
- Operator launches the audio conference call with a special script