Courtyard Virginia Beach Norfolk Completes Major Hotel Renovation

Hotel near ORF airport boasts high-tech GoBoard, flexible work and social spaces, and Bistro restaurant

Virginia Beach, VA – Marriott International Inc. has announced that the 146-room Courtyard Virginia Beach Norfolk Hotel at 5700 Greenwich Road in Virginia Beach, VA, has completed a major renovation of its public spaces, restaurant, guest rooms and meeting space.

The Virginia Beach hotel now features the brand's Refreshing Business lobby concept designed to give travelers the flexibility to work and socialize however they choose while on the road.

The new state-of-the-art lobby at the hotel in Virginia Beach, VA, welcomes guests with vivid contrasting colors including blue, green, orange and red. The traditional front desk has been replaced with separate welcome pedestals to create more personal and private interactions when guests check in. Flexible seating options include a communal table in the center of the lobby, private media booths with high-definition televisions and an intimate, semi-enclosed lounge area. A signature element of the new lobby at the hotel near Norfolk is the exclusive GoBoard, a 52-inch LCD TV packed with local information, maps, weather and the latest news, business and sports headlines. Guests can navigate using the touch screen to find restaurants, local attractions and directions. The entire first floor of the hotel, including the lobby and meeting rooms, now has wired and wireless Internet access.

The lobby also features The Bistro – Eat. Drink. Connect., a new dining concept with casual, flexible seating. The restaurant at the hotel near ORF airport offers easier access to food and higher-quality, healthier menu options for breakfast and dinner. Snacks, wine and beer are also available to help guests unwind.

The Courtyard Virginia Beach Norfolk is just minutes to fantastic shopping and dining at Virginia Beach Town Center, Norfolk International Airport, downtown Norfolk and government bases such as Norfolk Naval Station. The property features 134 guest rooms and 12 suites, a seasonal outdoor pool, fitness center and The Bistro. For information, visit www.CourtyardVirginiaBeachNorfolk.com or call 1-757-490-2002.
