Infographic Highlights Napa Dining and Wine Statistics

Data Reflects Amenities and Attractions That Positioned Napa as Happiest City in U.S.

NAPA, Calif. (March 14, 2013) – DoNapa.com today released an infographic highlighting the many amenities and attractions including its wine tasting rooms, dining, entertainment and arts available to locals and visitors alike while spending time in Napa, California. Recently named the Happiest City in the U.S. according to 10 million geo-targeted tweets, Napa is home to over 70 restaurants, 20 plus wine tasting rooms, 41 lodging properties, three major event venues and recreation along its namesake river.

“This infographic is a fun and exciting way to highlight all the wonderful businesses and events we have right here in the heart of Napa,” said Sara Brooks, general manager, Napa River Inn and chair of the Napa Tourism Improvement District. “Whether you are a local or visitor staying at our many hotels and bed and breakfasts, Napa offers endless options for dining, wine tasting, events, wellness and art. No matter what you’re interested in, there’s truly something for everyone.”

Once a jumping-off point for wine country excursions, Napa has undergone a renaissance, becoming a world-class destination in its own right. Located just a short drive from three international airports, the city of Napa truly stands apart as a culinary and wine tasting destination surrounded by its iconic vineyards and scenic surroundings along the Napa River. Napa is a Travelers’ Choice 2012 Winner and ranked second in the world as a food and wine destination by TripAdvisor.
