

Global Brachytherapy Devices Market 2012-2016

Description: TechNavio's analysts forecast the Global Brachytherapy Devices market to grow at a CAGR of 2.85 percent over the period 2012-2016. One of the key factors contributing to this market growth is the significant increase in the number of cancer patients worldwide. The Global Brachytherapy Devices market has also been witnessing a significant increase in the number of acquisitions. However, alternatives for cancer treatment could pose a challenge to the growth of this market.
