Today's Lesson

40 million Americans have been victims of child sexual abuse.

1/3 of them are still children now.

1 in 4 girls. 1 in 6 boys experience child sexual abuse by people they:

Know, Trust or Love.

Parents say, "my kids tell me everything." Child sexual abusers use

"grooming tactics" on their victims and parents making sure they never tell.

Parents say, "all our teachers, friends are nice" Nice is a trait predators perfect, being "nice" is their disguise.

" I would spot an abuser in a minute." Truth is most people really don't know how to identify adults who would be a potential child sexual abuser.

Featured Presentation From Donald J. Dymer, CEO and President SingleSource

background screening company located in Jacksonville Beach, Florida since 1995.

He will present:

Facts about the problem of child sexual abuse

1. The types of situations in which child sexual abuse might occur – including the internet.
2. Simple, effective strategies for protecting children from sexual abuse.
3. The importance of talking about prevention with children and adults
4. The warning signs of sexual abuse so that you might intervene when you suspect a problem.
5. The importance of developing a structured Child Abuse Prevention Program in your workplace or organization.
6. How much child sexual abuse costs companies across the country who fail to take steps.
7. Hear from an organization about how child sexual abuse impacted not just their reputation, but the morale of an entire staff who felt betrayed, victimized and suffered guilt over not recognizing the signs of a co-worker who was sexually abusing young campers.
8. Get the inside information about a scientifically based assessment test that can change everything.

Take home materials provided.

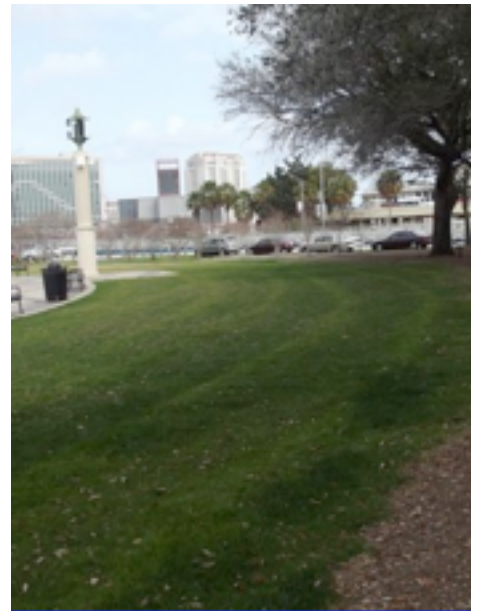

The Goal

To remove the stigma of child sexual abuse which will:

1. Enhance the ability to recognize and prevent abuse.
2. Understand what is and is not in a criminal record check.
3. Learn what pre-employment screening options are available to you that are compliant and effective.

This Breakfast and Learn series literally brings the topic out in the open. A venue where awareness can take center stage, where adults and children can empower themselves. Where in the light of day the future can be a bright place where children and youth can grow and flourish as it was meant to be.

Protecting children and youth is everyone's responsibility. We must do more than provide education. We must provide a safe haven, a nurturing environment in which children can feel secure and receive the ultimate benefit of the educational tools and opportunities.
