

Michigan Home Alarm Customers of Elite Security Services Can Now Enjoy 10% Discount on Upgrade of ADT Move Certificate.

Elite Security Services has recently introduced yet another free benefit for their Michigan home alarm users. These homeowners are now entitled to avail 10% discount when they upgrade their ADT move certificate. This useful offer is valid for all service plans from the company and is now available throughout Michigan.

Elite Security Services has just moved another step ahead in their efforts to capture the Michigan home alarm market. They are now offering 10 % discount to their customers for their ADT move certificate upgrade. Elite Security Services is one of the most recognized security service providers in the United States and offers their efficient service in all major cities throughout Canada and America. Their low cost service plans are extremely popular amongst homeowners in Michigan. The cheapest of the three is priced at only $35.99 per month. The company also provides lots of lucrative freebies for their customers throughout the year.

The latest offer for the Michigan home alarm customers of Elite Security Services would be particularly useful for those who relocate frequently for different reasons. ADT move certificate helps these security systems users to continue enjoying the same standard of home protection service in their new home. However, the customers are required to upgrade their ADT move certificate each time they shift to a new home. 10% discount on this upgrade can mean significant savings for someone who relocates frequently for office or business related requirements. The large pool of customers of the company in Michigan has welcomed the introduction of this offer.

During the official introduction of this offer, the owner of the company, Mr. Paul Shakuri said, "We understand the requirement of our customers. This offer would be extremely helpful because the requirement for security systems is much more when you have just relocated to a new home". Mr. Shakuri is one of the most respected figures in the American home security industry and has been highly instrumental behind his company's dream run in the Michigan home alarm industry. The company sources have mentioned that more similar offers from the company would be introduced very soon.

About the Company: Elite Security Services is a rapidly growing company in the home security industry. They offer highly efficient and economical home security solutions in America and Canada.
