

Mehow's 10 Second Attraction 2.0: Review Examining Mehow's Attraction System Released

SUMMARY: PUABooks.net releases a review of Mehow's 10 Second Attraction a new program that claims to reveal a proven system men can use to attract women in just 10 seconds.

Mehow's 10 Second Attraction, an instructional training guide for men wishing to master the skill of attracting women has just been released to the public sending shock waves through the men's dating advice and "Pick Up Artist" communities, prompting an investigative review from PUABooks.net's Clint Johnson.

"Many single men report frustration over feeling unable to effectively approach and start conversations with women they are attracted to," reports Johnson. "In fact, according to conversations with our website visitors this is one of the greatest struggles that guys face out on the singles scene. So, when we heard about the release of Mehow's 10 Second Attraction 2.0 program we were eager to review it for our readers. The first edition of Mehow's program was very well received and we wanted to see what this new program was all about."

Johnson's 10 Second Attraction review reveals that the system was developed by Mehow, a long time fixture in the pick up and dating advice community known for the invention of "in-field" pick-up video. The new course is said to be the culmination of the last 6 years of Mehow's efforts, and includes a new "systems approach" which provides instruction on best practices for a wide variety of situations men are likely to encounter on the dating scene.

"As the man who invented in-field pick-up video, Mehow has no problem getting in front of the camera and demonstrating his methodology," says Johnson. "These live, unrehearsed demonstrations can be very helpful for guys who want to have a structure that they can effectively model. As we discussed in our review, Mehow's course is based around teaching men how to be naturally charming, so that they can create real attraction, rather than attempting to 'trick a woman into liking them' using cheesy pick up lines or anything like that. We were also impressed by all the hew attraction 'hacks' Mehow has developed and included in his course for everything from 'insta-date texting' to keeping one's self amused so as to maintain a consistently playful, and charming demeanor."
